

CRATER MADE BY A FRENCH MINE

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

This photograph shows an enormous cavity made by the explosion of a French mine by which a German position was blown up, many soldiers being killed. The position was then taken by a brilliant bayonet charge.

Dresser Set of Embroidered Linen

Heavy white linen (or cotton in certain weaves) embroidered with light colored floss, make simple and elegant dresser sets that will delight the heart of the neat housewife. These sets consist of dresser scarf and pincushion cover usually, but glove and handkerchief cases may be made to match and added to them.

The scarf is a length of linen having scalloped edges, buttonhole stitched with light colored floss. A scroll and flower pattern is embroidered at each end and at the center of the scarf, on one side.

A small oblong pincushion is covered with two pieces of linen, one smaller than the other, as shown in the picture. These are buttonhole stitched in scallops about the edges and eyelets are worked in them. A scroll and flower pattern is embroidered in the smaller piece. They are joined by narrow satin ribbon threaded through the eyelets and tied in little bows.

CROWN PRINCE'S NEW BABY

The first photograph showing the crown princess of Germany and her infant, born April 8, 1915. The young star is the only daughter of the German heir and his wife, and is known as the German "war baby," although she has been christened "Alexandrine." It is believed she was born and christened while her father, the Crown Prince Frederick, was at the front.

Tramp Too Anxious to Work.
A tramp, hired recently by William Corcoran of Volga, S. D., to cut the grass and weeds about the Corcoran home, worked more zealously than most tramps. When the owner arrived he discovered that the fellow had carefully cut down, not only the grass and weeds, but all the potato vines.

SCENE IN ALPINE WARFARE

A dangerous climb made by an Austrian troop close to the frontier in an engagement with the Italians. The photograph shows the hazardous position of one of the wounded Austrians, who is being aided up the mountain-side by his comrades above him, while two other members of his troop are below ready to save him should the rope break. Such sights as this are almost a daily occurrence in the Alpine fighting.

Activities of Women.

Women are helping to build trenches in Turkey.

Mrs. Frederick Gardner, prominent in St. Louis society, is now touring the California mountains hunting for bear and deer.

Female students at the Harvard summer school have organized a club in which each member pledges herself not to marry before she is twenty-five and then only to a man who is earning at least $2,000 a year.

Princess White Deer, a Mohawk Indian maiden from the St. Regis reservation, is now in England, where she will marry a Russian officer to whom she has been engaged for more than a year.

"Aunt Betsy" Clark is the oldest person in West Virginia, having passed her one hundred and twelfth milestone. Even at her advanced age she does most of her housework and does not wear glasses nor have any use for a cane.

Making One's Life.
I know of no more encouraging fact than the unquestionable ability of a man to elevate his life by a conscious endeavor. It is something to be able to paint a particular picture, or to carve a statue, and so make a few objects beautiful; but it is far more glorious to carve and paint the very atmosphere and medium through which we look, which morally we can do.—Thoreau.

Nancy's inclination.
It was Nancy's first experience in the water. She and her father waded out together for a short distance. Then he picked her up and carried her into deeper water. She became frightened and exclaimed, "Oh,爹爹, I don't want to go there. I'd rather go where the water is short."

Record Sponge.
The largest sponge ever found came from the Mediterranean. It was three feet across and ten feet in circumference.
